WHAT'S HOT THE BEST DESIGN DISCOVERIES

Even an iconic design is open to reinterpretation: Rodolfo Dordoni has tweaked his famous 1997 Minotti Suitcase armchair for 2019 by recalibrating the piece's center of gravity and removing its original chrome legs. The new version is called Suitcase Line. 29.5" w. x 33.5" d. x 25" h., available in other colors, from $9,450. minotti.com

These clay-coated, screen-printed wallpapers from Los Angeles-based CW Stockwell (shown, from left, in Million Flowers and Remy) have the heady romance of freshly cut bouquets. 27" w., available in other colors, from $258 per five-yard roll. cwstockwell.com

The woven rattan edges of this Beaucaire daybed by Atelier Vime evoke the scalloped fabrics used in 18th-century canopy beds. Paired with black metal legs and customizable fabrics, they add a decorative touch to modern lounging. 75" w. x 27.5" d., $6,964 for c.o.m. ateliervime.com

The recently opened Four Seasons Hotel at the Surf Club, in Surfside, Florida, is home to an outpost of the chic Istanbul-based beachwear and accessories company Haremlique à la Mer. Consider picking up some Decor Walther green-crystal bath accessories as a souvenir of your stay. Available in other colors, from $200 for a toothbrush holder. haremlique.com

Ivan Paradisi's shapely Synchronicity desk is carved from a single piece of maple wood, trimmed in ebony, and inlaid with steel. It's sure to make seated work far more appealing. 71" w. x 29" d. x 30.5" h., $20,350. artemest.com
